MESSAGE OF THE MINISTER-PRESIDENT

A warm greeting to Rothenburg!

Since 1881, „Der Meistertrunk“ fascinates its spectators as well as its performers. Rothenburg ob der Tauber offers the ideal setting for a historical play. Visitors from far and near are delighted by the unique view of the town which shows the old times in their best light. In Rothenburg, history comes alive.

This applies especially on the Festival's days. The whole town turns into a stage then. The medieval lanes are full of colourfully dressed citizens, craftsmen, peasants and councilmen as well as swashbuckling lansquenets in historical garments. In this scenery, the „Meistertrunk“ play takes you far back in history to a decisive and very dramatic event in the town's history. Fortunately, the „Meistertrunk“ play always has a happy ending.

Numerous colourful scenes staged within and outside of the town complete the „Meistertrunk“ events turning them into an unforgettable experience. I wish the Rothenburgers and their guests, the performers of Count Tilly's army and the town's citizens an enjoyable festival.

Dr. Markus Söder
Minister-President of Bavaria, Patron

MESSAGE OF THE LORD MAYOR

Ladies and Gentlemen,

At long last, the time has come again: We celebrate the Pentecost Festival Days 2022 actively, live and as lighthearted as possible in these times. Our Historical Festival stage play „Der Meistertrunk“ is set in the time of the Thirty Years' War. The conditions at that time were terrible. Looting, devastation, hunger, hardship and misery were the order of the day. It's good that we, with our true-to-the-original garments, uniforms, weapons and settings are only re-enacting the situation of that time. It's good that we, in the here and now, may even enjoy that.

I would like to thank all who contribute to making these Pentecost Festival Days with all their program items, performances and participants in historical costumes possible at all. We are not talking about dozens here, but hundreds of people who contribute to the success. Rothenburg is hardly imaginable without the „Meistertrunk“, and so we also draw a good part of our identity from the Festival tradition which has long been recognised as an Intangible Cultural Heritage on a national level. This year we can finally show everyone again that this honour is more than deserved!

I wish peaceful and joyful Pentecost Days 2022 to all of us.
„Long live Rothenburg!“

THE ASSOCIATION

The association „Historisches Festspiel «Der Meistertrunk» e. V.“ was founded in 1881 as an independent registered and non-profit association. Besides its Managing Board and Organizing Committee it consists of 29 historical groups including two groups of stage actors and actresses, a total of more than 850 members. The association not only organizes the performances of the „Meistertrunk“ stage play, but also a vast program of supporting events during the Pentecost days.

The „Meistertrunk“ in Rothenburg ob der Tauber – this is history come alive with colourful events in the unique scenery of this excellently preserved medieval town in romantic Franconia.

Since 1881, the dramatic events of the year 1631 are brought to stage annually with the exciting and touching stage play „Der Meistertrunk“ written by master glazier and poet Adam Hörber. For the Rothenburgers and their guests, the Festival days during Pentecost are a major event and highlight of the year.

In 2013, the Federal Republic of Germany joined the UNESCO Convention for the Safeguarding of the Intangible Cultural Heritage (2003). It complements the acceptance of remarkable cultural and natural sites by the Convention concerning the Protection of the World Cultural and Natural Heritage, adopted by UNESCO in 1972.

In October 2015, the Historical Festival „Der Meistertrunk“ was approved as an „Intangible Cultural Heritage“ one of three festivals in Bavaria at that time.

In 2016, „Historisches Festspiel «Der Meistertrunk» e. V.“ in Rothenburg ob der Tauber was inscribed to Germany's national list of Intangible Cultural Heritage where it is registered along with many social practices, traditions, traditional craftsmanship and festive events.

The museum was founded in 1966 and with its 15 vaulted rooms and dungeons, provides an interesting insight into a lansquenets guardhouse, the fortifications and military readiness of the city, weapons, guns and other military equipment. Visitors can also admire further military artefacts and original flags of the Rothenburg troops.

You can find out interesting facts about General Tilly and the Catholic League, as well as about King Gustav II Adolf of Sweden and the Protestant Union. The defense situation of Rothenburg in 1631 is also one of the topics shown.

DER MEISTERTRUNK (THE MASTER DRAUGHT)

The year is 1631. The war has been raging in the country for thirteen long years.

In the autumn of 1631, Catholic Generalissimo Johann T'Serclaes Count of Tilly marches up to the walls of the Protestant Imperial City of Rothenburg ob der Tauber with an army of 60,000 men.

On October 30, the resistance is broken, the city being stormed. The mayor and all councillors are sentenced to death. A magnificent tankard, an unusual trade and an incredible deed bring a happy turn of events.

In case of cancellation of the performances in the Imperial Hall, the entitlement to claim their realization is waived. In this case, tickets will be refunded. Please note that mass events, especially the Historical Parade with horses, involve inevitable risks. Parents are kindly requested not to seat their children at the curbline. Attending the events is at your own risk - no liability for personal injury or property damage.

DER MEISTERTRUNK (THE MASTER DRAUGHT)

Behind the scene of the stage play, the staff consists of two make-up artists, four lighting and sound engineers, a stage manager-in-chief and eleven stage managers. The association engages a professional director to stage the play. Since 1999, Mr. Reiyk Bergemann holds this position.

The maintenance and repair work of the numerous historically correct uniforms and garments employs several costumers throughout the year. The association's dressmakers tailor the uniforms and garments. A shoemaker manufactures the shoes, leather haversacks and leather scabbards. All year long, honorary members of the association care for the maintenance of the historical vehicles.

We welcome you on all four Festival days to our Historical Craftsmen's and Traders' Market, with over 30 stalls around St. James' Church and at Grüner Markt.

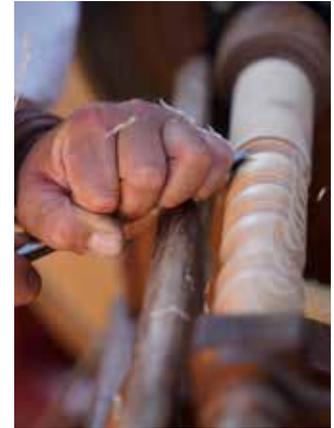

Let us take you back to a time when craftsmen, market criers and traders still shaped the varied image of a marketplace. For example, look over the shoulder of a wood turner or a pewter caster at his work. A scissor sharpener will sharpen the blunt knives and scissors you bring along. Our little guests can look forward to a ride on a historic carousel, pulling candles themselves or a visit to the falconer with his birds of prey.

The best medieval delicacies are served in the taprooms and taverns, while musicians and jugglers provide a wide range of entertainment with songs and short plays.

As a special highlight, we are pleased to welcome the band „Die Streuner“ for the first time this year. The band impresses its audience with rousing performances and imaginative arrangements. In historical garb, they present traditional medieval folk and will skilfully complete our market and offer you a unique medieval market experience.

 Map of the market stalls, taprooms and taverns

Princes in rags and loden

For over 25 years, this formation has been shaping the music of the medieval scene like hardly any other. The band captivates with its rousing performance and their imaginative arrangements. Traditional medieval folk music is performed in historical garb. The lyrics range from the heretical to the romantic, from the licentious to the humorous – or are last but not least simply about drinking.

Joining in the party is explicitly welcome!

Thus „Die Streuner“ not only inspire the audience with their CDs – seven by now - but also tour with their live performances mainly through German-speaking Europe and are guarantors for an extremely exuberant party mood of the audience. With their catchy melodies that invite you to clap and sing along and an entertaining stage show, the performance becomes an experience.

Here you can watch „Die Streuner“ live:

Saturday: 2.00 pm Market Square
approx. 9:00 pm Stage at the Festival site
(before the Fireshow)
approx. 10:15 pm Stage at the Festival site

„Eeny, meeny, miny, mo and out you go ...“ For thousands of years, counting rhymes, board games as well as competitions and tournaments have been for old and young not only a display of skill and practice but in addition a pastime – just ...KURZWEYL.

But singing, dancing, ball games and games of skill were also part of everyday life in the 17th century. Even in castle times, tournaments were one of the social highlights of the year; chess shows the prevailing social hierarchy of the time and the value of the individual class! Card and dice games were also very widespread and found broad approval and enjoyment in all classes. The grouping KURZWEYL ANNO 1631 deals with the topic of entertainment and games at the time of the Thirty Years' War.

If you want to know

- what the „Meistertrunk“ is all about
- how children played in 1631
- why people in historical costumes parade through the streets singing ...

then visit us, the group „Kurzweyl anno 1631“ in the garden of Montessori School (Herrngasse 15) and have a good time there with games and fun. Experience them and other participating groups up close on a tour of the town. Become part of the history of 1631 and „save“ Rothenburg!

On 15 May 1274, Rothenburg's unstoppable rise began with its elevation to the status of „Free Imperial City“ by King Rudolf of Habsburg. In order not to let the glorious times since then be forgotten, the citizens of Rothenburg decided to celebrate the Imperial City Festival every year on the first weekend in September.

In addition to many historical groups from different historical periods, numerous Festival groups enrich the townscape from Friday to Sunday. After the „Meistertrunk“ stage play performance, experience a large fireworks display over the Tauber valley to remember the „burning city“ in 1631.

Great Festival Ticket (Friday - Monday): 24,- €
Day Ticket Saturday or Sunday: 12,- €

The Great Festival Ticket entitles the holder to admission to all open-air events of the Historical Festival and the Shepherd's Dance, while the Day Ticket is valid for all open-air events of the respective event day. These include:

- Historical Craftsmen's and Traders' Market Friday - Monday
- Opening ceremony of the Festival Days at the Market Square on Friday
- "Campfire Night Watch outside the gates", at the Camp on Saturday evening
- Shepherds' Dance performances at the Market Square on Sunday
- Admission to Old Town (toll) on Saturday and Sunday
- Historical Parade on Sunday
- Historical Camp with beergarden and live music Saturday - Monday

Dear visitors and guests,

Historical festivals such as „Der Meistertrunk“ involve a considerable financial expense. With your entrance fees, be it toll, day or weekend ticket etc., you make it possible for our association to set up a cheerful, colorful, entertaining and above all safe festival for all participants and guests and to offer our visitors an unforgettable experience. With your contribution you support us, among other things, in the costly maintenance and care of the delicate historical costumes and weapons, the organization and logistics of the Historical Craftsmen's Market, Historical Camp, Festival Site and Historical Parade as well as the „Meistertrunk“ stage play performances in the Imperial Hall. Included are, among other things, the care and maintenance of the Museum with its dungeons and, of course, insurance for the approx. 1000 participants and animals - your own safety is also taken into account, of course. Therefore, we would like to thank you very much for your voluntary contribution and wish you beautiful, entertaining and safe Pentecost Festival Days with the Historical Festival „Der Meistertrunk“ in Rothenburg ob der Tauber 2022.

Much obliged!
